Weekly Summary

This week, three of us met with our client over the weekend to go over expectations of our presentation, and also what they would like included in it. We also worked on a rough draft of our UX design and presentation that day. On Wednesday, we had a dry run of the presentation with our client to get feedback on it. This will hopefully help us to prepare for questions we might receive during the final presentation. Lastly, we also started work on creating our UX designs for our web application.

Past Week Accomplishments

- Andrew Damon:
 - Worked on presentation
 - Set up UXPin account for whole team
 - Helped create rough sketch of report page with team on Sunday

- Freya Gaynor: Worked on the presentation with the client on Sunday, and during the week. Had a dry-run on Wednesday, got pointers on how to improve.

- Skand Gupta: Worked on the presentation and worked on the layout of the senior design website.
- Sydney Ehlinger: Met Sunday with our client to start preparing for our presentation. Worked on presentation for our dry run, which was Wednesday. Started implement the feedback we received from our first version of our project plan.
